6. Comments:

Applicants are submitting herewith a Decision of Rejection issued October 16, 2009 in the Chinese patent application corresponding to the present US application, together with an English version thereof. The English version is cited on the attached SB/08 form. Applicants note that the rejection is based purely on formalities; the Chinese Examiner is of the opinion that the general formula XY-Z-COOH is unclear and has employed an understanding of the unit "ppm" which is inconsistent with the definition of this unit in scientific dictionaries.

Respectfully submitted,

Erik BIJPOST et al.
